Turkish Laws and customs

- Turkey has strict laws against the use, possession or trafficking of illegal drugs. If you are convicted of any of these offences, you can expect to receive a heavy fine or a prison sentence of 4 to 24 years. The possession, sale or export of antiquities is illegal.
- Dress modestly if you're visiting a mosque or a religious shrine.
- Don't take photographs near military or official installations. Ask for permission before photographing people.
- Homosexuality is legal in Turkey. However, many parts of Turkey are socially conservative and public displays of affection may lead to unwelcome attention.
- It is an offence to insult the Turkish nation or the national flag, or to deface or tear up currency.

Money

- The currency used in Samsun is Turkish Lira (TRY). If possible exchange your Pound Sterling (GBP) for Turkish Lira (TRY) before travelling. Most UK high street banks and currency exchange providers can pre-order Turkish Lira (TRY).
- ATMs are widely available in major cities and tourist areas. You can get local currency from banks and exchange bureau, known as DOVIZ in Turkish.

Health

- You should ideally arrange an appointment your health professional at least four to six weeks before travel.
- You should be up to date with routine vaccination courses and boosters as recommended in the UK. These vaccinations include for example measles-mumps-rubella (MMR) vaccine and diphtheria-tetanus-polio vaccine. However, the Turkish authorities also recommend that you that most travellers to the country should also have Hepatitis A and Typhoid vaccinations before travelling to Turkey.
- The European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), is not valid in Turkey. Therefore, please ensure that you have a sufficient level of travel health cover and accessible funds to cover the cost of any medical treatment abroad and repatriation.
