Deaflympics Overview

The Deaflympics will take place in Samsun, Turkey, between the 18th to 30th July 2017. The competition is an exciting and fast-growing event which sees 104 countries competing against each other.

By doing this it brings together hundreds of thousands of athletes, coaches, officials and spectators from across the globe, demonstrating the gigantic scale of the competition.

Due to the scale of the competition, there is plenty of information for you to be aware of. As a result, several pieces of information have been collated together to provide you with a simple and effective guide to everything you will possibly need to be aware of both before and during competing/travelling.

In addition to this document there are a number of resources you can access to provide you with further information that you may feel you require;
